

Community Content

The Arbour Lake Community Association (ALCA) maintains electronic communication vehicles such as e-mail, the website and social media. The ALCA may post information that has been provided to us by community members and other organizations. The ALCA does not accept responsibility for the accuracy or the potential liability for information passed onto the community as the information is provided with the condition and expectation that all persons using the information will use their own due diligence and discretion.

The ALCA reserves the right to refuse any submitted posting. The following guidelines will assist us in determining acceptability of postings.

Postings Must Be	Postings Must Not
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Community-oriented	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Advertise a commercial enterprise
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Responsible	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Be paid advertising
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Respectful to all	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Be offensive in nature
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Professional

The ALCA reserves the right to update these guidelines at any time.